

MISSOURI STATE ASSOCIATION

BUILDING STRONG LEADERS

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America is a dynamic national student organization that helps young individuals become leaders and address important personal, family, work and societal issues through family and consumer sciences education. Chapter projects focus on a variety of youth concerns including career exploration, family relationships, financial literacy, nutrition and fitness, peer pressure, substance abuse, teen pregnancy and teen violence.

FCCLA IS:

- A co-curricular Career and Technical Student Organization that functions as an integral part of the family and consumer sciences education curriculum and operates within the school system.
- An activity that provides opportunities for active student participation at local, state and national levels.
- The only in-school student organization with the family as its central focus.

MEMBERSHIP

FCCLA has a national membership of more than 175,000 young men and women in over 5,300 chapters in 52 state associations, including the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. Since its founding in 1945, FCCLA has involved more than ten million individuals. Former members may join Alumni & Associates.

Currently, Missouri FCCLA has 9,862 members in 320 local chapters, ranking as the fourth largest FCCLA state association in the nation.

FCCLA is the ultimate leadership experience, focusing on character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communications, practical knowledge and career preparation

COMPETITIVE EVENTS

FCCLA competitive events are known as STAR (Students Taking Action with Recognition) Events. Members can demonstrate family and consumer sciences skills, career skills and interpersonal skills through a variety of events. More information on these events can be found at: <http://fcclainc.org/programs/competitive-events.php>
