LIABILITY

I understand that each individual is responsible for his/her own health insurance coverage while attending a conference or event of Missouri Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. I hereby release the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, Missouri Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, and any designated individual in charge of the Missouri Family, Career and Community Leaders of America group or specific activity from any legal or financial responsibility with respect to my personal or my student's participation in, or contact with, any known element associated with an activity including competitive events and travel to/from such events.

CODE OF CONDUCT AND DRESS CODE

Student members are to conduct themselves in accord with exemplary standards of ethics and behavior, including zero tolerance for any actions that violate any civil or criminal codes. The FCCLA Code of Conduct, as stated on page 2, should be adhered to at all times during any Missouri FCCLA conference or event. Students who disregard the rules will be subject to disciplinary action and will be sent home at their own expense. Parents will be notified. Student conduct at any Missouri FCCLA conference or event is the responsibility of the local chapter adviser.

Missouri FCCLA's dress code policy should be adhered to at all times. See Missouri FCCLA's webpage for the official Missouri FCCLA Conference Dress Code.

Missouri FCCLA Code of Conduct

The following conduct code applies to all conference delegates.

1. Behavior at all times should be such that it reflects positively on you, your school, and FCCLA.
2. Student conduct is the responsibility of the local chapter adviser and chaperones. Students shall keep their advisers informed of their activities and whereabouts at all times
3. You are expected to attend all general sessions and other scheduled conference activities. Please be prompt and show respect to those in the audience and on stage. Be courteous to conference and hotel staff, presenters, and other attendees.
4. Students of the opposite sex are not to occupy lodging rooms at the same time unless an adult chaperone is present.
5. Members/participants attending Regional/State/National Conferences may not purchase, consume or be under the influence of alcohol or drugs at any time, including Nicotine. Violators will be subject to stringent disciplinary action.
6. Use of firearms or fireworks are not allowed by delegates.
7. The dress code will be adhered to throughout the conference.
8. Students will observe the designated curfew. (Curfew means that each person must be in own room by the designated hour).
9. Delegates are guests of the hotel and must not deface or destroy property. Damages to any property or furnishings in the hotel will be paid for by the individual or chapter responsible.
10. Accidents, injuries, or illness should be reported to the local or state adviser immediately.
11. Students who disregard the code of conduct will be subject to disciplinary action and may be sent home at their own expense. Parents/guardians will be notified and may be required by the local school district to escort their son/daughter home.

CONFERENCE ETIQUETTE

Everyone attending the State Leadership Conference should be respectful and courteous to those around them. Here are some general rules to help ensure everyone has the “Ultimate Conference Experience.”

- Arrive 10-15 minutes early for sessions. Late arrivals are disruptive to those who made it there on time. If you arrive late, please be as quiet as possible as you find your seat.
- Come prepared—do you have your nametag, paper, pens, etc.?
- Don't eat or pop gum loudly when in sessions.
- Seating at most sessions is limited, so please don't leave empty seats between groups. When possible, sit close to the front and in the middle of a row so others don't have to climb over you to reach empty seats.
- Don't sit in the hallways. We understand you might be tired, but sitting in the hotel hallways with legs blocking the area is a safety hazard. Please sit on a chair, bench, or stand up.
- Respect the speaker and those around you by being quiet, turning your cell phone off or on silent, and by turning off music devices. Please refrain from texting.
- Lead by learning — you paid to attend this conference and in order to get the most out of it, you will need to do your part by listening, being respectful, and participating in workshops and sessions.
- Laugh, smile and have fun! Please remember to do this at appropriate times.
